Red Earth And Pouring Rain

Written largely as a story-within-a-story, Red Earth and Pouring Rain relates the tales of two story-tellers - one, an Indian poet reincarnated in the form of a red monkey (whose human consciousness emerges after an accident), and the other, a newly-returned student sent to the United States for university.

Red Earth and Pouring Rain by Vikram Chandra

Red Earth and Pouring Rain reads like the first shot of a great writer still finding his voice. Chandra loosely intertwines two stories: one, set in India, an adventure tale in the style of old epics, and the other a modern American road story.

Bear's Den - Red Earth & Pouring Rain Lyrics | Genius Lyrics

Drummer Kevin Jones told HMV.com: "Andrew was out in India and he found this old Tamil poem that was called Red Earth & Pouring Rain. It inspired the first song for the album and it really summed up what we were going for. It gave us creative direction and if you've got a phrase that's always in your head, it's a good fixture."

Red Earth & Pouring Rain by Bear's Den - Songfacts

Red Earth and Pouring Rain (1995), Chandra's first novel, was inspired by the autobiography of James Skinner - the Irish Raja of Hansi in Haryana, a legendary nineteenth-century Anglo-Indian soldier. He wrote the novel over several years while enrolled in the writing programs at Johns Hopkins University and the University of Houston.
